

Bring Your Story to Life in Paint

Alison K Lawther is an Australian contemporary artist known for expressive palette knife paintings that celebrate individuality, strength and emotion.

Each commissioned painting is a collaboration between artist and collector, capturing a moment, memory or person that deserves to live on canvas.

From intimate personal portraits to bold contemporary statement pieces, Alison creates works that are both deeply personal and visually striking.

Commission Process

Commissioning a painting is simple...

- 1. Initial Conversation - Share your idea, story or reference photos
- 2. Concept & Size Selection - We discuss composition, colour palette and canvas size
- 3. Painting Begins - Your portrait is created using signature palette knife technique
- 4. Final Artwork Delivered - A one-of-a-kind original ready to live in your home

Commission Information

Custom portraits | Family or individuals | Gift commissions

Sizes available from 40cm to large scale statement pieces

Lets create something personal